Warrandyte Venom – In the Spotlight

Congratulations to Paul O'Brien for being nominated as a Big V Division One Women's Coach of the Year Finalist

This week in Division 1/2 Women

Last week saw the Senior Venom Women play the Qualifying Final against the Chelsea Gulls. It was a fantastic game of basketball that saw multiple lead changes in the last quarter but unfortunately the Venom could quite get it done going down 72-74 to the Gulls. Shannon Powell Ross was fantastic with 31pts, 12rbs, 5ast and 6stl. Emmie O’Nial also stood up with 18pts and 20rbs. Lily Jacobs was very active when on court making a handy 10pts, and Maddy O’Nial battled hard for her 8pts, 6rbs and 4ast.

It’s crunch time for the Venom when they face the Altona Gators this weekend. Win and they face Chelsea in the Grand Final, lose and their season is over. The young Gators bat very deep off the bench and can score from anywhere on the court making them a difficult prospect to defend. Applying the brakes on Tyla Paraha(15.15ppg), Aseka Ratnayke(12ppg) and Jess Rarity (10.95ppg) will be key, as will controlling the boards and closing out the mid-range jump shot. If they do that, the Venom should come away with the win and make it through to next week’s Grand Final.
